

Great Quotes for a Crisis

While under great restrictions due to the corona virus threat, Mother's Day 2020 just won't be what we had hoped. And we might worry about how much longer these restrictions might be in place

Here's a helpful turn of phrase:

"Pray, and let God worry." – Martin Luther

Yes – as the Apostle Peter urged us,

"... casting all your care upon Him;

for He cares for you." – 1 Peter 5:7

And, more about that:

"Prayer is not getting things from God ...

prayer is getting into perfect

communion with God:

I tell Him what I know He knows

in order that I may get to know it as He does." – Oswald Chambers

Sure, sometimes we do "get things from God."

Yet, that need not matter, if we:

- confess our fears,

- give thanks for what he has provided, and

- attempt to understand the situation

the way He sees it.

As Chaplain Todd has pointed out, sometimes God calms the storm, and other times God lets the storm rage, yet he calms His child.

God bless you with prayerful calmness.

"Pray, and let God worry."

- Chaplain Rick Bradley
