Dear Residents,

Happy Friday! I want to send out a few small reminders, updates and FYIs to you today.

Outside Entertainment:

Some of you received flyers about some upcoming entertainment occurring this week. This entertainment unfortunately has to be rescheduled, so it will not be taking place this week. We will let you know when this can be rescheduled, and make sure they flyer has the date on it next time.

Chatter Box:

We are hearing very positive reviews from residents and family regarding the use of the Chatter Box for family visits! Residents – when you come for your visit, if staff is not already waiting to assist you with entering the building, please check in at the Resident Services office for assistance.

Activity Class Schedules:

Jennifer is continuing to work through scheduling activities for residents interested in scenic drives, fitness classes or chaplain's devotionals. Please make sure to only attend events as lined out on your personal activity plan provided to you by the activity's office.

Thank you! Have a wonderful weekend and enjoy the sunshine!

Thank you,
Eva Lounsbury
Resident Services Director
